

The Chester Township Board of Trustees met in Special session Wednesday, August 14, 2024 in the Town Hall Meeting Room at 5:30 PM Chairman Craig Richter presided.

Roll Call: Trustees, Mr. Richter, Mr. Mazzurco, Mr. Radtke were present
Fiscal Officer, Patricia Jarrett was absent

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag

The Board led the audience in reciting the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Leading Motion #: 2024-382

Township Property Insurance

A representative from OTARMA Insurance Company, Board of Trustees, department heads and the Township Administrator discussed the property insurance. Each department was involved and engaged with the discussion.

Storm Damage Information

The Board of Trustees expressed gratitude for the overall well-being of the residents and the Township. The Board of Trustees are requesting guidance from the Geauga County Emergency Management Agency to assist the elderly residents that are unable to clean up their yard debris from the August 6, 2024 storm. The Chester Township Departments agreed communication with the many agencies that arrived from multiple areas to assist, was difficult and would like improvements in the future. Department heads also discussed conducting a meeting in the next few weeks to evaluate how to improve as a Township overall, documenting resources utilized during the storm cleanup along with the multiple days of the power outage.

ADJOURNMENT:

There being no further business before the Board, Mr. Richter adjourned the meeting at 7:24 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Patricia Jarrett, Fiscal Officer
